Brookland-Cayce High School contends that we do not owe the SC High School League for a fine alleging that we played an ineligible player in a track meet during May 2017. The player was Jamir Robinson.

We challenged the Commissioner's interpretation of the McKinny Vento Act. We also challenged the claim that Jamir was ineligible due to disciplinary reasons at Dreher High School.

The Executive Committee voted in our favor. We were prepared to ask for a hardship exemption to the ruling had they not decided in our favor. We feel the fine was applied incorrectly.
