Officials: ArbiterPay is Available

BLAIR WARREN, ARBITER ADMINISTRATOR

The Hassle-free Way to Pay Your Officials: ArbiterPay allows schools to pay officials and event workers electronically and makes collecting W9 information and submitting 1099s much easier. Visit :

<https://www.arbitersports.com/b-products/arbiterpay/>

For assistance, please contact
Blair Warren @ 803.896.4271 / blair@schsl.org
Cory Eldredge @ Cory.Eldredge@arbitersports.com

With ArbiterPay, you can:

- > Pay officials immediately after an event with the click of a button
- > Provide officials access to their funds via direct deposit, an ArbiterSports debit card or check
- > Collect W-9 information securely online rather than at a game site
- > Automatically issue 1099s and comply with state tax laws
- > Avoid the time, hassle and cost of issuing paper checks and buying postage
- > Give officials access to payment info on their mobile device.

Powering ArbiterAthlete™

- ✚ Schools with new principals and athletic directors should e-mail Ryan Bethea ryanbethea@planeths.com to receive an administrator account on PlanetHS. Please provide name, school and position.
- ✚ Update your bookmarks! As of July 1, ArbiterAthlete has rebranded back to PlanetHS. All accounts made the move back over summer break and all new accounts should be created at www.planeths.com. For now, you will still be able to log into the site using either domain. Thanks for your patience and cooperation with this transition.

Congratulations to Beaufort High School's "See Something; Say Something" drama students and LaRaine Fess, instructor, for their most recent accomplishment. This student production was named the 2019 NFHS "Heart of the Arts" national award winner for their dedication to local, state and national awareness for antibullying education. Mrs. Fess was on hand to receive the award during the NFHS 100th Anniversary Celebration/Summer Conference in Indianapolis last week.
